That's the list blues fans all around the World can't wait to read every new year. I am humbled once again to be in such a good company. Lotta great talented fellow musicians and friends here. Only the cream of the crop. Massive thanks to the voting music lovers!

20) Shakedown Tim and his Rhythm Revue: Shakedown's Th'owdown

On this wonderful album, excellent musicianship doesn't get in the way of a good time.

Here, Boom, Belgium, based singer and guitarist Tim lelegems takes some original ideas and applies them to the sounds of traditional blues. This twelve-song adventure of mostly lelegems' originals was produced by none other than James Harman. He blows harp on three of the album's twelve tracks and even contributes an original song to the proceedings, Icepick's Shakedown Th'owdown. Gene Taylor plays piano on six tracks on this brand-new Rhythm Bomb Records release. Along with the terrific guitar playing of lelegems, the tenor and baritone sax of Bart Stone adds a wonderful sonic dynamic to this album. Shakedown's Th'owdown is a potent cocktail of vintage cool.

2019 starts with a tour in Los Angeles! In spring Shakedown Tim will play some cool festivals in Germany...

It's a new year and Shakedown Tim is playing with a new all star line-up. Tim's long time pall and piano player extraordinaire Ilias Scotch is ticklin' the ivories.

Jack Fire aka Jack 'O Rooney (Doghouse Sam, Seatsniffers, The Coasters, Chuck Berry...) handles the low frequensies on the upright bass while steady rollin' Koen Van Peteghem beats it out on the drums. This is a killer band that can't wait to get on the road. They've just recorded a duet with Ghalia... more about that soon...

This band is ready, willing and able to shake it down!
